

HARD-SURFACED ROADS FAVORED

Frank Kell of Wichita Falls
Explains Plan Here.

OKLAHOMA CITY AS A HUB

Highway From Texas to Kansas Is Plan Suggested.

One of the biggest good road projects announced here in years, broke yesterday when Frank Kell of Wichita Falls, Texas, visited the city and requested the good roads committee of the Chamber of Commerce to get behind his plan with its power in order that Oklahoma county and Oklahoma City should have a share in the greatest road proposition experts say the southwest has ever known.

This is Kell's plan: Kell says Wichita Falls and the county it is situated in have voted a bond issue for $750,000 to pay for hard surfaced, concrete roads radiating out of Wichita Falls. Already Wichita Falls has linked itself to the famous Electric oil fields, some distance off, and Kell says that more passenger traffic goes over this hard-surfaced road by automobiles now than the railroads ever carried.

Kell believes that the various oil fields between the Electric fields in Texas and the Mid-Continent fields in Kansas should be united by a continuous system of hard-surfaced roads. Kell would start north from Wichita Falls, coming through southern Oklahoma by way of Lawton and the military reservation, Fort Sill, then up to Oklahoma City, thence to Tulsa by way of the Cushing oil fields and from Tulsa north to the mid-continent fields in Kansas, all this great highway to be built of hard-surfaced material.

Kell and his plan descended upon Oklahoma City unannounced and as a great surprise to the Chamber of Commerce officials. In a short time, however, all the members of the Chamber's good roads committee had received a telephone request to gather at the Chamber at 5 p. m. and hear Kell's plan. Every man on the committee was present and it was received with enthusiasm. One of the encouraging things pointed out to the Oklahoma City business men in connection with this chain of hard-surfaced roads connecting the great southwest oil fields was the fact that oil men, admittedly the freest spenders of money in the world, would have free, easy and comfortable access to Oklahoma City to do their buying and seeking of amusements to be found in the metropolis of the southwest. Kell said that to all intents and purposes Oklahoma City would act as the hub and most important center of this oil field highway.

The plan was the subject of much discussion and it was voted by the members of the Chamber's good roads committee to postpone definite action on the project until the first part of next week. Kell was assured that his plan had the informal endorsement of the Chamber of Commerce good roads committee, and that it knew of no reason why the Chamber could not, through this committee, get behind the plan and assist. The method of doing this would of course be to see to it, so far as this community was concerned, that Oklahoma county did its share of the hard-surfaced road building.

Kell expressed himself as well satisfied with the result of his visit and said

He should have used
Resinol
for his skin trouble

If you have been "turned down" as this man was because of an ugly skin eruption, or if you are suffering from an itching, burning skin trouble which keeps you scratching and digging, why don't you try Resinol Ointment?

In most cases it stops itching instantly, and healing begins promptly—even more promptly if aided by Resinol Soap. Physicians know that it contains no harsh drugs and they have prescribed it for many years.

All druggists sell Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. For free sample, write Dept. 6-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

Problems of the Heart

DEAR MRS. THOMPSON: I am a young man twenty-two years old. I have an opportunity which calls me many miles away. I have a girl friend near here whom I like very much. Would it be all right to leave her? And how can I keep her a sweetheart, and still not keep her from having a good time?

I may be gone two or three years. Would you advise me to keep up a correspondence, or have her forget me?

DOUBTFUL DICK.
You are too young to tie yourself to one girl by becoming engaged to her, and so it will be best for you to leave her with no definite understanding as to the future except that you value her friendship highly and that you want her to write you often. When you reach your destination you should write her at once, showing her that you really want to correspond and giving her a chance to answer your letter.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have a boy friend in the army who sent me a war saving stamp for my birthday. I appreciate it very much, but my girl friend said it was as bad as accepting money or jewelry and that I should return it to him. I am afraid that if I do that I will hurt his feelings and I don't want to. What do you think?

BETTY.
Under the circumstances it will be all right to accept the gift. In remembering you the boy also did a service for his country which was a very good idea.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are two girls fifteen and seventeen. We both receive letters from two boys in another town whom we have met and have gone with while on a vacation. How long should we wait before we answer? And what could we write about to make an interesting letter?

CHUMS.
Wait a week or two before answering. Then tell whatever interests you most and they will probably be interested too. Also comment on what they told you so that they will know that you appreciate their letters.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am seventeen years old. I am to be married in the spring. Would a suit or dress be best to wear?

(2) Do you think it is proper to correspond with other boys after you are engaged?

BRIDE-TO-BE.
(1) If you do not feel that you can afford a suit and a dress buy whichever you think will be more serviceable. A dress is usually worn, of course, but many practical brides prefer a suit because they can get more service from it.
(2) It is all right if the boy you are engaged to doesn't care.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am seventeen years old. Do you think a black silk skirt too old for me?

DOUBTFUL.
Yes, I think it is too old. Brown, blue, stripes or a plaid would be so much prettier and more youthful.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards'
Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's never any sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowels complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look! 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

I just found out.

That my friend Walter Dean.

Once was on the stage.

I went down to see him.

A couple of days ago.

To buy some diamonds.

An' a couple of watches.

An' a silver soup set.

An' some other things.

I told him I wanted.

A real diamond.

An' not a forty-one.

Like they have on the stage.

An' in the movies.

An' then Walt told me.

He'd been on the stage.

A long time ago.

He was the star dancer.

So he told me.

In old Bill Shakespeare's.

Famous musical burlesque.

Entitled "Omelette."

An' just to prove it.

He recited a few lines.

Which went like this.

"Lay off, MacDuff."

"An' damned be he."

"Who first cries."

"I can't hold enough."

An' then he told me.

When he was in that show.

The critics all said.

He had a sympathetic voice.

An' I agreed with him.

But I said if he had.

A sympathetic nature.

He wouldn't sing at all.

An' he didn't like it.

An' he refused to sell me.

An eight-carat rock.

For seventy-five bucks.

An' I didn't like it.

An' I told him I'd get.

The very same thing.

Over at Woolworth's.

For only fifteen cents.

An' then he told me.

I knew where Woolworth's was.

An' I wasn't tied.

So why shouldn't I go.

That'll be the first thing.

He'll ask the Kaiser for.

Woman Leader in Army Work Is Crack Shot

NEW YORK.—Capt. Helen Baatedo, leading eleven young women from the Motor Corps of America to police headquarters, took possession of the copiers' pistol practice gallery, when Sergt. Thomas L. McElroy proceeded to show them how to shoot.

"You hold the pistol thus," said the sergeant, grasping a regulation .38 automatic.

Captain Helen took the weapon and glanced quickly down the forty-five foot gallery. She raised the pistol, sent a fast eye over the sights and the marker reported a bullseye.

The young woman repeated until she rolled up a score of 98 out of a possible 100.

"Say, miss," remarked the sergeant, "you've got this thing wrong. You did not come down here to learn how to shoot. You came down to show us how to shoot."

Captain Helen admitted she was no
